Comedian Rhonda Corey embodies the spirit of New England with her authentic charm and a touch of lovable sass, winning the hearts of audiences nationwide. Her comedic journey boasts numerous accolades, including triumphing over 22 comedians in the 2018 Clean Comedy Challenge held in Chicago.

In January 2023, Rhonda initiated the "Funny Together Tour," a clean comedy showcase featuring national touring comedians, specifically designed for churches. For more information, visit funnytogethertour.com.

Mike Murray, a captivating storyteller and comedic force, emerged from the silence of deafness at the age of 40 with the aid of Cochlear implants. His journey from a world of quietude to one filled with laughter became the cornerstone of his extraordinary life. Taking center stage, Mike fearlessly shared his incredible and humorous story, swiftly earning the adoration of audiences across New England.

Mike Murray's commitment to blending comedy with purpose has not only made him a beloved figure in the world of entertainment but has also positioned him as a driving force for charitable endeavors. His impact resonates far beyond the stage, leaving a lasting legacy of laughter, compassion, and significant contributions to the communities he serves.

Admission is free, but reservations are needed – follow QR Code or go the Gather Calendar at Word Radio at wordradio.net/gather for more information.
